Dated the 11th June, 2010.

Dear Secretary,

Sub: Fourth Session of the Fourteenth Orissa Legislative Assembly.

You are aware that the Fourth Session of the Fourteenth Orissa Legislative Assembly has been scheduled to commence from 22nd June, 2010. All matters relating to Assembly need to be addressed with utmost urgency and seriousness. Timely submission of reply for assembly questions and response to any other matter which may be raised in the Assembly through the prescribed mechanism needs your personal attention and you may, therefore, remain present at headquarters during this period. Meetings of Heads of Departments and field officials at Division / Range or Headquarters be avoided as far as possible. District visits of Principal Secretaries, Commissioner-cum-Secretaries & Special Secretaries be deferred during the period. You may also ensure that concerned senior officers are present at the headquarters during the entire period. Arrangements for presence of officers of the appropriate level in the official gallery should also be made in advance. Close and personal supervision at your level for attending to all matters connected with Assembly is imperative.

Please ensure that all previous assurances are also complied before 22.06.2010. Close attention to important news items published during the session be paid and correct information on the status of events and corrective steps taken be compiled and kept in readiness for any eventuality.

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Tarun
